RECREATION

Franke Park Day Camp

Franke Park Day Camp provides children with enjoyable outdoor experiences in a wooded setting which foster cooperation through learning, playing, working, problem solving, and socializing together. Since 1946, Franke Park Day Camp has been serving the children of this community with an emphasis on basic camping skills, nature education, and Native American Lore. Any individual, 4-18 years of age, may register for Franke Park Day Camp, regardless of sex, color, national origin, religion, or disability.

All campers must be of minimum age by June 1, 2020. Campers (with the exception of CITs) are limited to one camp session.
Registering for more than one camp session will result in cancellation of the additional session(s) and a refund less processing fees.

4-5 YEAR OLD PROGRAM

A thematic approach exposes young children to the concepts of seeds and plants, trees, animals, and Native Americans in this pre-camp experience. Space is limited to 40 campers per session. Due to space limitations, campers may attend only one session of camp.

6-11 YEAR OLD PROGRAM

Nature education, basic camping skills, and Native American lore are emphasized in the 6-8 and 9-11 year old programs. Campers enjoy a wide range of activities including hiking, fire building, outdoor cooking, swamp study, nature walks, arts and crafts, Native American storytelling/dancing, games, mud-sliding, etc. Space is limited to 224 campers per session. Due to space limitations, campers may attend only one session of camp.

ADVANCED CAMPER PROGRAM

The Advanced Camper program is open to individuals, 12-18 years of age, who wish to be Junior Leaders (12 years) or Counselors-In-Training (13-18 years). The program involves day camping, overnight camping, Native American Lore, basic camping skills, canoe instruction, nature education, ecology, conservation, camp and community service projects, social activities, and assisting the Franke Park Day Camp staff. For more information and a registration packet, please call 427-6000. Space is limited.

HOURS

Day Camp begins at 9:00 a.m. and ends at 3:30 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday. On Wednesday, camp begins at 1:00 p.m. and ends at 7:00 p.m. Before and after camp child care is available as early as 6:30 a.m. and as late as 6:00 p.m. See Camp Care.

Campers should be dropped off and/or picked up at the Nature Lodge in Franke Park.

WEDNESDAY EVENING PROGRAM

Day Camp ends every Wednesday evening with an open house, staff introductions and a special program of songs and skits from 6:00-7:00 p.m. Parents and family members are encouraged to attend and join the fun. Franke Park Day Camp t-shirts will be available for purchase at this time.

FRIDAY POW-WOWS

Each session of camp closes with a pow-wow on Friday, from 2:00-3:00 p.m., where the campers will perform Native American dances and receive their feathers and/or dog tags. The weekly pow-wows help campers prepare for the Annual Big Pow-Wow at the end of camp. Family and friends are invited to attend.

CAMP CARE

Before and After Camp Program

An early morning and late afternoon Camp Care program is offered for campers ages 4-12. Camp Care will be held before and after the regular day camping program on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday. The morning session runs from 6:30 a.m. until day camp begins at 9:00 a.m. and features breakfast, games, arts and crafts, and nature hikes. The late afternoon session begins when day camp adjourns at 3:30 p.m. and runs until 6:00 p.m. Arts and crafts, games, and nature hikes are also featured in the afternoon program as well as a light snack. Each Camp Care program is $25. Space is limited. Note: Camp Care is not offered on Wednesdays.

Day Camp registration is in progress. Use the registration form on page 8 or register on-line at www.fortwayneparks.org.

74th ANNUAL BIG POW-WOW

Tuesday, July 28, 7:00 p.m., Franke Park

Franke Park Day Campers from all sessions throughout the summer are invited back to participate in the annual Big Pow-Wow and reunite with the friends they made during camp. The program features Native American dances around a big bonfire. Family and friends are invited to attend this traditional Franke Park Day Camp finale!

Franke Park Day Camp questions may be directed to the Parks and Recreation Office at (260) 427-6000.

This booklet is also available on-line: www.fortwayneparks.org

Close book and flip over for sports, arts and other summer fun programs for kids.

City Safari Day Camp

Explore the City of Fort Wayne and discover fun in surrounding areas of Northeast Indiana. Each week of camp incorporates a different theme through field trips, guest speakers, related activities, games, and arts and crafts. In fact, campers stay quite active when comparing life both inside and outside the city! Please note that our day camp is a traveling camp and may travel up to 1.5 hours or 75 miles away for some of our field trips. Campers also have fun in the sun while they enjoy an afternoon at Northside Pool and get to do a little gardening too. Pick your week(s), and join us this summer exploring different parks and area attractions, admiring wild animals up close, and learning all about the world of art! Limit of 24 campers per week.

LOCATION

City Safari's base camp is located at the Foellinger-Freimann Botanical Conservatory, 1100 S. Calhoun Street in downtown Fort Wayne with staff-led excursions to points of interest within walking distance and by traveling in a Parks Department 15-passenger van to other locations around Northeast Indiana. Campers return to the Conservatory by 4:00 pm for pick up.

AGES

Camp is open to children entering 1st-6th grades in Fall 2020; must be age 6 years by June 1, 2020.

Registration forms are also available on-line or by calling 427-6000 and may be mailed, faxed or dropped off at the Parks & Recreation Department. Please read the registration information and refund policy in this insert before you sign up. If you have any questions about City Safari Day Camp, please call the Conservatory's Camp Coordinator at (260) 427-6445.

FINANCIAL AID

The Parks & Recreation Department offers a $50, once-per-year scholarship for qualified youth. To learn more about this scholarship, contact the Park Office at (260)427-6000.

Questions? Call the Camp Coordinator at 427-6445.

Week #1June 8-12 Park Explorers

This week is all about exploring different parks. We will learn about wildlife at Chain O'Lakes State Park in Albion. Then, we will have fun making crafts and playing nature games at Dallas Lake Park in Lagrange County. Learn more about the various parks in Northeast Indiana, and take advantage of what our local parks have to offer!

Week #2June 15-19 On the Go

During week two, we will be learning all about the different ways in which things move. We will go on an excursion to Pokagon State Park in Angola to learn about all kinds of insects. We will also visit the Mid-American Windmill Museum in Kendallville to learn about windmills. Join us this week as we focus on different things that are on the go!

Week #3June 22-26 Farms & Gardens

Where does your food come from? Find out as we focus on organic gardening, visit Fox Trail Farm in Albion, and get the chance to share in "tasty" home-grown treats! We will also travel to Freedom Acres near Cromwell to learn about farm animals. Together let's explore what it is like to live in the country!

Week #4July 6-10 Museum Week

If you enjoy visiting different types of museums, then this week is for you! Join us for this fun-filled week of learning about the good old days. Our trip will take us to Sheets Wildlife Museum in Huntington where we will learn all about exotic animals. We will also visit Swiss Heritage Village & Museum in Berne to learn about what life was like long ago.

Week #5July 13-17 Creation Station

Do you like art, music or television? Then, you will not want to miss this week at camp! We will learn all about art at the Fort Wayne Museum of Art. We will also learn all about music when touring Sweetwater Sound. We will then wrap up the week at the Children's Festival during the Three Rivers Festival exploring many "creation" stations.

Week #6July 20-24 Awesome Animals

Calling all animal lovers – have we got a week for you! We will be learning about all kinds of animals including native wildlife and animals that are exotic and domestic. Not only will we visit our hometown Zoo, we will also have fun at the Whitley County Fair learning about farm animals. Together we will discover many different kinds of animals near and far.

Farmin' Fun Day Camp

Come spend a week on the farm! Our Farmin' Fun Day Camp provides a stimulating, healthy and beautiful environment where you will learn about soil, plants, animals and the source of our food. Campers will be able to continue the cycle of farm-to-table in our new teaching kitchen. The camp integrates hands-on farming such as gardening and animal care, cooperative games, blacksmithing and nature exploration for a memorable and diverse summer camp experience. You will care for farm animals; hike in the woods; play in the creek; wash, dye and felt wool from one of our sheep; enjoy hayrides around the farm and much more!

LOCATION

Farmin' Fun Day Camp is held at Salomon Farm Park, 817 W. Dupont Rd. in Fort Wayne.

CAMP BUDDIES

Children who wish to attend camp together must indicate this on the registration form and both children must request it. We will do our best to place the campers together as requested, however, due to the volume of registrations and the lottery processing system, we cannot guarantee it.

HOW TO REGISTER

Register on-line at www.fortwayneparks.org or use the registration form in this brochure to register by mail, fax or in person at the Parks and Recreation Department. Questions should be directed to the Parks and Recreation Department at (260) 427-6000.

CONFIRMATION NOTICES

Campers will receive an e-mail confirmation the week prior to their camp session with all the information needed for the upcoming week. Keep a look out for this email! (If you do not have an email address on file your confirmation will come in the mail.)

F.I.T.

"Farmers in Training" is designed to provide children ages 12 and older a more active role in the care of livestock, vegetable gardening, hands-on beekeeping, blacksmith demonstrations and campfire cookouts on Fridays. Farmers in Training harvest and sell their vegetables at the Farmers' Market in addition to participating in games and other fun activities.

C.I.T.

"Counselor in Training" is for campers 13-18 years of age who have completed 2 weeks of F.I.T. Counselors in Training are role models for the younger campers. The program is designed to train youth how to be confident leaders among their peers. C.I.T.s will have opportunities to learn important teambuilding, leadership, and agriculture skills as they assist camp counselors in leading activities such as beekeeping, blacksmithing, gardening and animal care. The program is limited to 8 campers per week. Each camper will be required to provide two references to complete their registration.

Sign up now! Register on-line at www.fortwayneparks.org or use the registration form on page 8.

Kids for Nature Zoo Camp

Spend a WILD week at the Fort Wayne Children's Zoo! You'll explore the zoo, visit friendly animals, meet zoo keepers and make new friends in this unique summer adventure. REGISTER ONLINE and see complete program descriptions at www.kidszoo.org.
