This 6-piece band brings together an authentic replication of Billy’s timeless music, crowning it with the type of soulful, spot on vocals that make listening to a Billy Joel song so special. Tickets: $20

America

Monday, August 15, 7:30 p.m.

Gerry Beckley and Dewey Bunnell (along with former band mate Dan Peek) met in high school in London in the late 1960s and quickly harmonized their way to the top of the charts on the strength of their signature song “A Horse With No Name.” America became a global household name and paved the way with an impressive string of hits following the success of their first #1 single. Forty-six years later, these friends are still making music together, touring the world and thrilling audiences with their timeless sound. Their best-known tunes, which also include “I Need You,” “Ventura Highway,” “Don’t Cross The River,” “Tin Man,” “Lonely People,” and “Sister Golden Hair” were cornerstones of 1970’s Top 40 and FM rock radio. Presented by Pacific Coast Concerts. Tickets: $49-$79, $5 transaction fee

Stayin’ Alive (Bee Gees Tribute)

Saturday, August 20, 8 p.m.

From traditional Bee Gee’s songs like “To Love Somebody” to disco era songs like “Stayin’ Alive,” the authentic look and falsetto voices of this Toronto based group will get you in the mood to re-live the 1970’s. Tickets: $20

Happy Together Tour

Sunday, August 21, 7:30 p.m.

Featuring The Turtles with Flo & Eddie, this concert includes Chuck Negron, formerly of Three Dog Night, Gary Puckett & the Union Gap, the Spencer Davis Group, The Cowsills and Mark Lindsay of Paul Revere & The Raiders. Combined, the artists on this show recorded close to 50 hits including “Gimme Some Lovin’,” “Young Girl,” “Joy to the World,” “It Ain’t Me Babe,” “Happy Together” and “Steppin’ Out.” Presented by Pacific Coast Concerts. Tickets: $49-$79, $5 transaction fee

Chicago

Tuesday, August 23, 7:30 p.m.

Chicago was the leading US singles charting group during the 1970s. Over the course of their career they have had five number-one albums and 21 top-ten singles including “If You Leave Me Now,” “You’re the Inspiration,” and “Baby, What a Big Surprise.” They will be inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame on April 8, 2016 at Barclays Center in Brooklyn, New York. Presented by Pacific Coast Concerts. Tickets: $49-$99, $5 transaction fee

Charlie Daniels Band

Thursday, September 1, 7:30 p.m.

During Charlie Daniels 50-year career, he has scored hits on the rock, country, pop and Christian charts and counts his awards from the Country Music Association (CMA), Academy of Country Music (ACM), TNN/Music City News Awards, and the Gospel Music Association (GMA) among his many accolades. His signature song, “The Devil Went Down to Georgia,” topped both country and pop charts, bringing him international acclaim. Leon Russell will be opening for The Charlie Daniels Band. Presented by Pacific Coast Concerts. Tickets: $49-$79, $5 transaction fee

George Thorogood

Sunday, September 18, 7:30 p.m.

In 1973, a barely-out-of-his-teens Wilmington guitarist piled his gear into his drummer’s Chevy van to play their first gig at the University of Delaware dorm. More than 4 decades and some 15 million albums later, that same maverick is still thrilling audiences with classics like “Who Do You Love,” “I Drink Alone,” “One Bourbon, One Scotch, One Beer,” “Bad to the Bone,” and more. Presented by Pacific Coast Concerts. Tickets: $49-$79, $5 transaction fee
