Justin Taylor: Earth Garden Paintings
January-March
Public Reception: January 17, 1:00-3:00 p.m.
Justin’s love of nature inspires his paintings of surreal landscapes and imagery. His work has drawn inspiration from his travels through the redwood forests of Oregon and the Austrian Alps. Justin also uses his education in Landscape Architecture to inform the flow and geometry of his pieces. Primarily working with oil on canvas, he brings his visions to life using rich earth tones with unconventional dashes of color to create depth of field. Justin uses scale to amplify the visual impact of his pieces. From far away, his works blend together to create a peaceful landscape, but when viewed closely, bold brush strokes and a dramatic use of color energize his work.

Over the course of four weeks we will create four different toys that people of all ages will marvel over. Our projects will include a squishy stress ball for squeezing when you feel anxious, aromatherapy play dough, a shimmery galaxy jar, and a soothing rain stick. Caps for a Cause

Sunday, February 9, 1:00-3:00 p.m.

Park Foundation Pavilion

Promenade Park, 202 W. Superior St.

Instead of sending plastic caps to a landfill or worse, why not use them to create something beautiful? Join us at the Park Foundation Pavilion in Promenade Park for the kickoff of this fun and free community art project. Under the guidance of local young activist Sammie Vance, we will glue and drill plastic caps of all colors and sizes onto a board that has been pre-painted with the template for a beautiful mural. Caps for a Cause is a drop-in program and will meet on the second Sunday of each month. Absolutely no artistic experience or skill is needed to participate and you don’t have to attend this first session to participate in the future. All ages are welcome. Please wear close-toed shoes and clothing you can get messy. Questions? E-mail Brooklyn.Bieszke@cityoffortwayne.org.

PS . . . If you have plastic caps you would like to donate for this project, please bring your clean caps (we cannot accept dirty caps), sorted by color, to the Parks and Recreation Department at 705 E. State Blvd and leave them in the donation box inside the door.

Confluence Kitchen: Featuring the Culture of China

Swap recipes, learn Chinese phrases, snap some selfies at the photo booth, and enjoy cultural activities. Delicious, authentic Chinese food will be available for purchase. All ages are welcome. Drop-ins are welcome if space is available, but we recommend registering in advance to secure your spot as space is limited. Those who wish to be seated together must register together. This is an open event where you are free to come and go according to your own schedule. Ages 3 and under admitted free. Please contact Brooke at 427-6022 or Brooklyn.Bieszke@cityoffortwayne.org with questions. Registration deadline: February 5. Max. 80.

Beginning Pottery

Pottery not only allows you to produce uniquely decorative and useful items, providing a means of self-expression and a sense of accomplishment, it can also provide therapeutic benefits such as stress reduction and mood enhancement. Each student will create six unique pieces to take home (a cylinder, vase and bowl by wheel and a coiled creamer, slabbed box and your own creation by hand). A supply list will be provided with your receipt or you may view it on-line at www.fortwayneparks.org. For safety purposes, all participants will be grouped according to skill level. Please list your child’s age on the registration form. Registration deadline: January 4. Min. 5. Max. 10.

Gymnastics for Guys

Because it builds overall body strength, increases coordination and agility, and teaches mental focus, gymnastics provides excellent training for other sports. Participation in gymnastics also promotes a positive learning attitude which some educators believe leads to higher math and reading scores. Best of all – gymnastics is FUN! You will learn to perform front and back rolls and handstands as well as skills on the parallel bars, pommel horse, rings, high bar and trampoline. All participants will be grouped according to skill level. Please list your child’s age on the registration form. Ages 5-8. Registration deadline: January 4. Min. 5. Max. 10.

Curious About Crochet

One of the greatest things about crochet is that you don’t have to invest in fancy, new materials or find room in your house to store a bunch of equipment. With just a simple hook, a skein of yarn and a nice, comfy place to sit, you can begin enjoying all the benefits this craft provides. In this class, we’ll get you started with a few basic stitches and show you how to read a pattern. You’ll leave this class with a Granny Square lap afghan and a new hobby. Please bring to class a size K crochet hook and one skein of 4-ply yarn in a light color. (Once you’ve begun your new hobby, join us for Hooked on Crochet below.) Instructor: Berniece Wilkins. An iron and ironing board will be set up for your use and large tables available for laying out your quilt. Ages 50+. There is no need to call ahead. Drop-in fee: $1.
