FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Philharmonic Offers Free Concert at Foellinger Theatre Music from the Movies on July 17 at 7:30 p.m. Associate Conductor Caleb Young on the Podium

FORT WAYNE, IN — June 24, 2021: The Fort Wayne Philharmonic will offer a free community concert at Foellinger Theatre on July 17 at 7:30 p.m. Northeast Indiana's premier orchestra continues its return to live concerts with an evening of treasured movie music hits. A fun-filled and relaxed evening will be in store for local audiences when Associate Conductor, Caleb Young conducts Music from the Movies. Movie fans will relive musical highlights from their favorite movies through tunes from West Side Story to Harry Potter.

"I'm excited to get back on stage with my colleagues," says Caleb Young. "We've missed performing for our loyal audiences and this fantastic program featuring movie favorites is the perfect way to celebrate our return."

Gates will open at 6:30 p.m. and seating will be general admission. Advance reservations are not needed for this free concert.
