

IN AN EFFORT TO INFORM PARENTS AS TO WHO WILL BE INTERACTING WITH THEIR CHILDREN,
THE FORT WAYNE PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT PRESENTS:
THE 2022 FRANKE PARK DAY CAMP STAFF BIOGRAPHICAL PORTRAITS

Vivi Clark is a 2022 graduate of Northrop High School. She plans to attend Purdue University Fort Wayne majoring in Civil Engineering. She is a first year counselor at Franke Park Day Camp. She has worked with children as a Counselor-In-Training at Franke Park Day Camp, as a swim instructor, a lifeguard, and a babysitter.

Megan Driver is a junior at North Central College majoring in Exercise Science. She is a second year counselor at Franke Park Day Camp. She has worked with children as a child care provider, as an intern at Turnstone Center, and as a volunteer at various sport camps.

Nick Fecher is a junior at the University of Saint Francis majoring in Animation and Studio Art. He is a second year counselor at Franke Park Day Camp. He has worked with children as a Counselor-In-Training at Franke Park Day Camp, as a child care provider, and as a tutor.

Spencer Fey is a freshman at Arizona State University majoring in Engineering. He is a third year counselor and Senior Camp Counselor at Franke Park Day Camp. He has worked with children as a Counselor-In-Training at Franke Park Day Camp and as an instructor in dance, musical theatre, and vocal performance.

Chris Freehill is a 1983 graduate of Ball State University. He holds a bachelor's degree from Ball State University and a master's degree from Indiana University in Elementary Education. He is currently teaching third grade at Forest Park Elementary School for Fort Wayne Community Schools. This is his forty-fifth year on staff at Franke Park Day Camp and his thirty-second year as the camp's supervisor.

Hannah Freimuth is a 2022 graduate of North Side High School. She plans to attend Indiana University majoring in Elementary Education with an emphasis on English Language Learners. She is a first year counselor at Franke Park Day Camp. She has worked with children as a Counselor-In-Training at Franke Park Day Camp and as a volunteer with various service organizations at North Side High School.

Charlie Hauptstueck is a junior at Holy Cross College majoring in Biology and Environmental Science. He is a second year counselor at Franke Park Day Camp. He has worked with children as a Counselor-In-Training at Franke Park Day Camp and as a volunteer at the Fort Wayne Children's Zoo.

Sam Hauptstueck is a junior at Purdue University majoring in Natural Resources and Environmental Science. He is a second year counselor at Franke Park Day Camp. He has worked with children as a Counselor-In-Training at Franke Park Day Camp and as a volunteer at the Fort Wayne Children's Zoo.

Lilly Hefley is a sophomore at Indiana University majoring in Environmental Science. She is a second year counselor at Franke Park Day Camp. She has worked with children as a Counselor-In-Training at Franke Park Day Camp and as a child care provider.

Abigail Lopez is a sophomore at Butler University majoring in Biology. She is a first year counselor at Franke Park Day Camp. She has worked with children as a Counselor-In-Training at Franke Park Day Camp and as a babysitter.

Alexis Madden is a 2020 graduate of Anderson University. She holds a bachelor's degree in Fine Arts. She is currently teaching Dance and Theatre Arts at Snider High School for Fort Wayne Community Schools. This is her fifth year on staff at Franke Park Day Camp and her first year as the camp's Assistant Supervisor.

Jackson McKinney is a sophomore at Purdue University Fort Wayne majoring in Theatre. He is a second year counselor at Franke Park Day Camp. He has worked with children as a Counselor-In-Training at Franke Park Day Camp and as a volunteer with the Fort Wayne Children's Choir.

Ana Motherwell is a junior at the University of Alabama majoring in Psychology. She is a second year counselor at Franke Park Day Camp. She has worked with children as a Counselor-In-Training at Franke Park Day Camp, as a swim coach, and as a volunteer with various children's organizations.

Katie Nix is a junior at Purdue University majoring in Industrial Design. She is a second year counselor at Franke Park Day Camp. She has worked with children as a Counselor-In-Training at Franke Park Day Camp and as a child care provider.

Claire Oxley is a junior at Purdue University Fort Wayne majoring in Elementary Education. She is a third year counselor and Senior Camp Counselor at Franke Park Day Camp. She has worked with children as a Counselor-In-Training at Franke Park Day Camp, as an instructor for Junior Achievement, and as an instructional assistant for Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church.

Kathleen Simunek is a junior at Indiana University majoring in Vocal Performance and Political Science. She is a second year counselor at Franke Park Day Camp. She has worked with children as a Counselor-In-Training at Franke Park Day Camp and as a volunteer for the Fort Wayne Children's Choir.

Colin Sutphin is currently employed at Five Star Distributing and is earning his CDL Certification. He is a second year counselor at Franke Park Day Camp. He has worked with children as a Counselor-In-Training at Franke Park Day Camp and as a volunteer at Blackhawk Christian Church.

Callie Swangin is a junior at the University of Saint Francis majoring in Animation. She is a first year counselor at Franke Park Day Camp. She has worked with children as a volunteer and color guard director with various children's organizations.

Jessica Zhou is a 2022 graduate of Canterbury High School. She plans to attend Purdue University majoring in Pre-Pharmacy. She is a first year counselor at Franke Park Day Camp. She has worked with children as a Counselor-In-Training at Franke Park Day Camp and as a volunteer with various children's organizations.